

Four Lebanese Banks Sign Ethics Engagement Charter

August 2025 - LIBANK, Saradar Bank, BSL Bank, and Banque BEMO have together signed an Ethics Engagement Charter, a landmark step to rebuild confidence and reinforce the sector's commitment to serving clients better.

The Charter commits the signing banks to integrity, transparency, mutual respect, and accountability. It extends ethical conduct toward clients, employees, regulators, and society at large. By acting responsibly and aiming especially to protect clients' interests, the four institutions seek to recover their trust, strengthen the sector and provide higher-quality service.

This initiative marks a new spirit of collaboration among Lebanese banks, signaling a collective effort to restore credibility after years of severe challenges. The framework is also open to welcoming other banks that share these principles and wish to contribute to building a new and better Lebanon.
